

Lincoln Square Synagogue Post- Passover Shopping List 2019, Manhattan

1. Wherever possible, it is always preferable to support the local Kosher establishments in the neighborhood. Chametz may be purchased immediately after Yom Tov from any store under a reliable Hashgacha.

2. The following establishments are owned by non-Jews and therefore have no post-Passover issues. Chametz can be purchased there immediately:

7 Eleven, A & P, Amazon, Associated, BJ's Wholesale Club, Costco, CVS, D'Agostino, Duane Reade, Fairway, Gristedes, Jubilee Market, Key Food, Pathmark, Peapod.com, Rite Aid, Sam's Club, Target, Trader Joe's, Waldbaum's, Walgreen's, Walmart, Westside Market, Whole Foods

3. Barzini's, Morton Williams, and Fresh Direct have Jewish ownership and their chametz was sold, but they remained open on Passover:

Please ask Rabbi Robinson for guidance on these establishments.

4. Food City and Zabar's have Jewish ownership and management, but DID NOT sell their chametz during Passover. Follow the wait period listed:

- a) Wait 1 week to purchase bread: 05/05/19
- b) Wait 2 weeks to purchase cereals: 5/12/19
- c) Wait 3 weeks to purchase cakes, cookies, pasta: 5/19/19

5. If you have a question about a specific establishment not listed here, please contact Rabbi Robinson.
